Fourth Court of Appeals to Hear Oral Argument

The Fourth Court of Appeals will hear oral arguments in one appeal on Monday, November 14, 2011, beginning at 2:00 p.m., before the following panel of justices: Justice Karen Angelini, Justice Sandee Bryan Marion, and Justice Steven C. Hilbig.

The following case will be presented:

Cynthia J. Moak v. Cynthia Huff - This case involves an investment transaction between two individuals. Appellant challenges the legal and factual sufficiency of the evidence to support the trial court's findings that appellant violated the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act, breached a contract, and committed fraud and conversion. In addition, appellant argues the trial court erred by not awarding her attorney's fees because she prevailed on plaintiff's claim under the Texas Theft Liability Act.

The oral arguments will be held in the Fourth Court's Courtroom, Cadena-Reeves Justice Center, Third Floor, 300 Dolorosa, San Antonio, Texas.
